

The Irish Association of Directors of Nursing and Midwifery

*Coming back to what we know
– a future of care and complexity*

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Radisson Blu Hotel, Athlone, Co. Westmeath
6th & 7th October, 2016

We extend a warm welcome to IADNAM members and invited guests as we meet to inspire each other and reflect on the individual and collective leadership roles that we fulfil across the health, social care and education systems associated with Nursing and Midwifery .

Conference Programme / Thursday 6th October 2016

Theme	Global Solidarity – Broadening our frames of reference
08:00 – 09:00	Registration
09:00 – 09:15	Chairperson Mr Paul Gallagher, Hon Vice President, IADNAM, Director of Nursing, St James's Hospital, Dublin President's Address Ms Suzanne Dempsey, Hon President, IADNAM, Chief Director of Nursing, Children's Hospital Group, Dublin
09:15 – 09:30	Opening Address Ms Mary Wynne, Interim Nursing & Midwifery Services Director, Office of the Nursing & Midwifery Services Directorate, HSE
09:30 – 10:15	Chairperson Ms Mary Brosnan, Director of Midwifery and Nursing, The National Maternity Hospital, Dublin 'Mind the Gap – Insights into Leading and Engaging Millennials' Dr Mary Collins, Senior Executive Development Specialist, Institute of Leadership, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
10:15 - 11:00	Keynote Address 'Excellence in Primary Health Care: The Role of Nursing and Midwifery Leaders in the Sustainable Development Goals' Prof Sheila Dinotshe Tlou, Director of the UNAIDS Regional Support Team for Eastern and Southern Africa
11:00 - 11:30	Coffee break
11:30 - 13:00	Keynote Address cont'd Ms Sheila Dinotshe Tlou, Director of the UNAIDS Regional Support Team for Eastern and Southern Africa
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch, Networking and Exhibition Viewing
Theme	Inter-professional solidarity – making complexity count for more
14:00 - 14:15	Chairperson Ms Marie Gilligan, Quality Improvement Advisor, Quality Improvement Division, HSE Conference Address by CORNMARKET
14:15 – 14:35	Message from Mr Tony O'Brien, Director General, HSE
14:35 – 15:15	'Sharing what we know and supporting services to improve quality of care' Ms Maria Lordan Dunphy, Assistant National Director, Quality Improvement Division, HSE
15:15 – 15:45	Address by Finian McGrath TD, Minister for Disabilities, Dail Éireann
15:45 - 16:15	'Progressing Children's Disability Services' Ms Theresa O'Loughlin, Regional Manager of Children's Services, Daughters of Charity Disability Service, Dublin
16:15 - 16:30	Questions
19:30	Pre-Dinner Drinks Sponsored by CORNMARKET
20:00	President's Dinner Address by Simon Harris TD, Minister for Health, Dail Éireann

Conference Programme / Friday 7th October 2016

Theme	Leadership Solidarity – Influencing change and relating with confidence
08:30 – 09:00	Registration
09:00 – 09:30	Chairperson Ms Caroline Keyes, Assistant Director of Nursing, Connolly Hospital, Dublin Chief Nurse Address Dr Siobhan O'Halloran, Chief Nursing Officer, Department of Health
09:30 – 10:00	'Nurses of the Rebellion: commemorating the past, preserving the present' Mr Derek Browne, Nursing Historian and Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Emergency Medicine, St James's Hospital
10:00 – 10:30	'A View from the Edge @ the World Cafés - Re-making Leadership through Conversation' Ms Georgina Bassett, Hon Secretary, IADNAM, National Leadership and Innovation Centre for Nursing and Midwifery
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 – 11:15	Chairperson Mr Thomas Kearns, Executive Director, Faculty of Nursing & Midwifery, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
11:15 – 12:00	Introducing a method for co-creating knowledge, action and inspiration (concurrent sessions) Dr Liz Hayes, Corporate Community 'If only.....re-imagining our leadership in Nursing and Midwifery' – Time to go get a room 1. 'Leading Change and Collective Action' Dr Leandro Herrero, Chief Organisation Architect, The Chalfont Project 2. 'The Resilient Leader' Ms Elaine Way, Chief Executive, Western Health and Social Care Trust in Northern Ireland 3. 'Leadership, Romance and Revolution' Dr Alan Taylor, Senior Lecturer in Leadership, Management and Service Development, Coventry University
12:00 - 12:20	'You'd never believe what we just heard' – Back on the floor and keen to talk A learning exchange fuelled by knowledge gained from the concurrent sessions (your views)
12:20 - 13:00	'So what was all that about?' - On the couch with Thomas A reflective exchange with the speakers and participants Chaired by Thomas Kearns
Theme	Solidarity – Flying high and enjoying the action
13:00 - 13:15	The launch of the IADNAM Strategy 2016 -2020 Ms Suzanne Dempsey, Hon President, IADNAM, Chief Director of Nursing, Children's Hospital Group
13:15	Conference Close Ms Suzanne Dempsey